To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

Mr. Kenneth Bradshaw is now in his second year as Dean. He is kept busy by the many things that have to be done for this office.

Our Director of Admissions, Mr. James Storie, keeps himself busy working with students both old and new as well as advising the Circle K.

Three Outstanding Leaders Head Mitchell College

Mr. Donald E. Spencer is Director of Student Affairs, and also heads the Popular Arts Committee. With all this, he makes time to be Financial Advisor to the Circle.

Mrs. Jane Chilton is the Secretary to the Director of Student Affairs and to the Alumni Association. Mrs. Joann Overcash serves as Secretary to Mr. Storie, the Director of Admissions. Mrs. Donna Watson, who is Secretary to Dean Bradshaw, is not pictured.

The Office Staff is Composed of Eight Efficient Ladies

Mrs. Bird Williams functions as the necessary Bookkeeper while Miss Mary Edna Matheson acts as the school Bursar. Mrs. Brenda Leckie serves in the business office as Cashier.

Mrs. Carol Beaver serves as secretary to the Recorder while Mrs. Phyllis Travis serves as Recorder.

Library Aids

Mrs. Marcia Bradshaw is our head librarian. She is always willing to help students in any way possible.

Mrs. Hazel Waugh serves as a part time librarian.

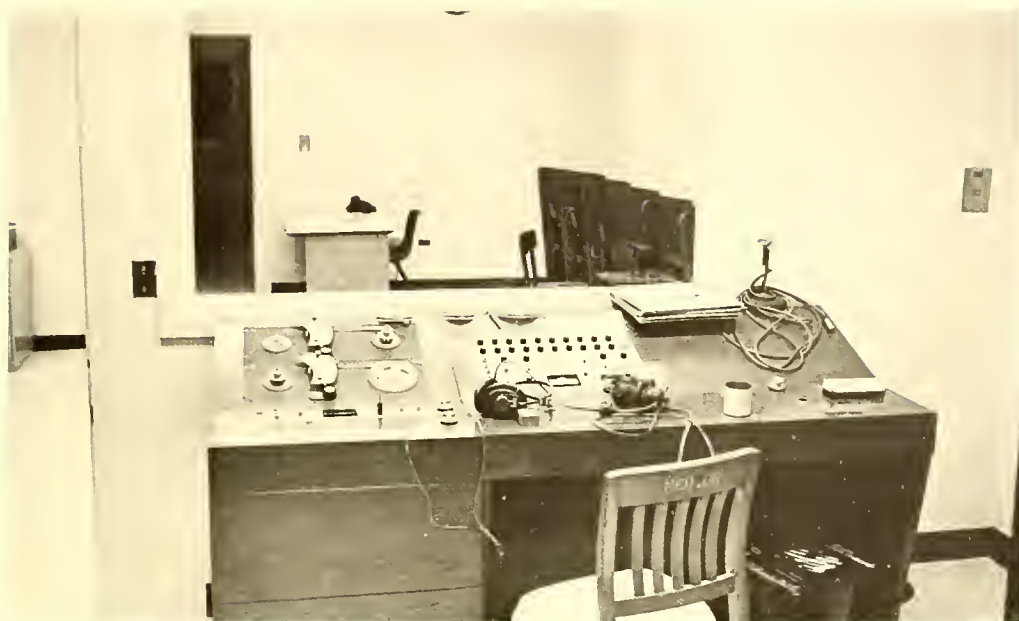

Mrs. Dorothy G. Poole, our assistant librarian, works hard assisting students whenever she can.

Another helpful librarian is Mrs. Barbara Stafford.

Students in Various Ways

Listening Lab enables students to perfect their pronunciation for language classes.

Students at study.

Did you know that there is a typing room in the library?

Mrs. Catherine Cline, M.A., enables her students to grasp the basic ideas of English by an informal trip through English Composition.

Mr. John Young, M.A.Ed., instructs both English Composition and American Literature classes. He also acts as advisor for the newspaper.

Mrs. Hall, M.A., leads her students through the fundamentals of English Composition.

Miss Linney Heads English Department

Miss Linney, M.A., acts as head of the English Department, devoting herself to teaching English Literature and English Composition.

Mr. Jay Hall, M.A., an authority on Thomas Wolfe, guides his students skillfully through the short stories and novels of English Composition.

Social Science

Mr. Joseph Pickett, Ed.S., teaches an interesting course in Western Civilization as well as intensive study in U. S. Government.

Mrs. Doris Pickett, Ed.S., who is in her second year at Mitchell, teaches Western civilization as well as being advisor for the sophomore class.

Mr. Louis Brown, M.A., the sole instructor of Sociology also teaches Anthropology to his students.

Sponsors Model Congress

Mr. Oscar Stradley, M.A., has been at Mitchell for six years. He teaches U.S. History and Geography.

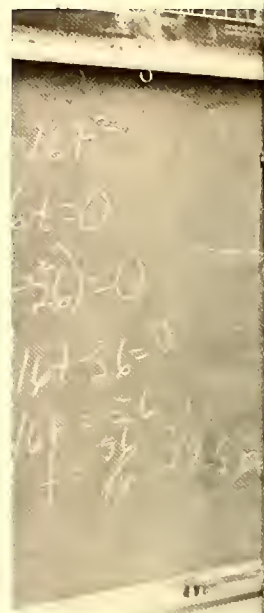

Mr. Stephen Herman, M.A., through a study of Western Civilization enables his students to understand the events of past history.

Carmen McLean wonders if Socrates really was a martyr to truth.

Mr. Charles Kelly, M.A., teaches his Biology classes an interesting course on plants and animals.

Science Stimulates Students

Mr. Sidney Sowers, M.A., teaches Chemistry to science-minded students. He also teaches Biology.

Mr. Jerry Hass, M.A., keeps himself busy teaching an enlightening course in Biology.

Mathematics Department Adds New Instructors

Miss Shirley Thorne, M.A., who is new at Mitchell this year, teaches Fundamental Math and Calculus.

Mrs. Clara Tharpe, M.A., teaches Fundamental Math at Mitchell in the evenings.

Mr. Wayne Rash, M.A., instructs Fundamental Math at Mitchell in the evenings.

Dr. Richard Morgan, Th.D., serves as chaplain at Mitchell College. He inspires and incites thought through his lectures in Old and New Testament and Psychology.

Dr. Morgan counsels students during registration.

Chaplain and Teacher

Dr. Morgan's Psychology class enacts Games People Play.

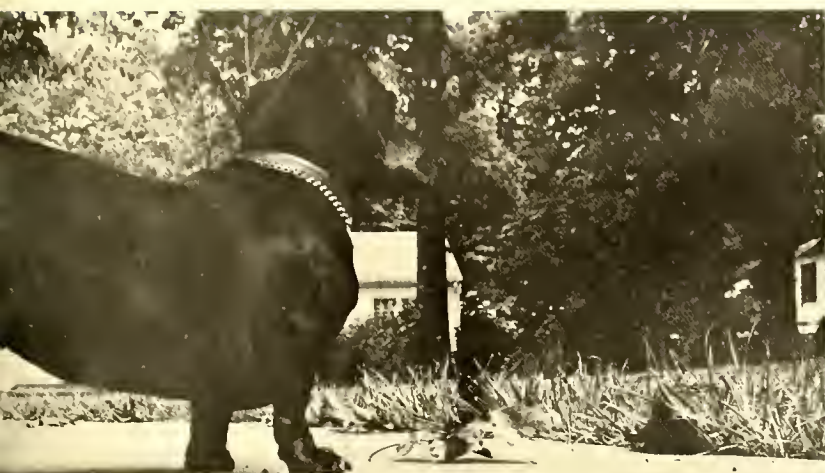

Romantic Languages Talk

Mr. Richard Watson, M.A., instructs Elementary Spanish, Spanish Literature, and Advanced Spanish Literature. His students learn the culture of Spanish oriented countries as well as the language.

Mrs. Katherine Knox, M.A., shares with her students her knowledge of French. She teaches Elementary French, French Literature, and Advanced French Literature.

This dog wonders what she's doing on the foreign language page just like everyone else. Could it be that she's of German descent?

Miss Sarah Nooe, M.A., has taken the place of Mrs. Knox while she was ill. She enabled her students to learn the French language and the background of the French people.

Mr. Walter Mann, M.M., is an addition to the Mitchell faculty. He instructs his students in Music Theory and Music Appreciation, and also gives private piano lessons.

Mrs. Martha Bradner, M.M., devotes her time to directing the choir and coaching the drama class.

The choir works long and hard preparing the "Christmas Oratorio" by Camille Saint-Saens.

Appreciation in the Arts

Mrs. Josephine Bunch instructs organ as well as playing the organ for chapel services.

Miss Louise Gilbert, B.A., though not seen often on campus, does much to help her students in such courses as Basic Art, Mechanical Drawing, and Painting at Mitchell.

Students in Basic Art develop their ability to envision the objects around them.

Mrs. Betty Sherrill, M.A., advises the Freshman class and teaches Typing, Shorthand, and Office Practice.

Business Department Ranks High In State

Is this serious business or monkey business?

Miss Margaret Lane, M.Ed., who is head of the Business Department, prepares her students for a future in a business in such courses as Beginning Typing, Advanced Shorthand, and Office Machine.

Mr. Dennis Sloan, M.A., teaches Accounting to his students as well as a course in Business Math.

Mrs. Carolyn Kelly, M.S., instructs Economics, Business Math, and Introduction to Business Math.

Mrs. Brenda Morrow, Physical Education instructor for our girls, is in her first year at Mitchell.

Mr. William Goins, who is new this year, works in the Physical Education Department instructing boys' courses as well as co-ed. He also coaches the boys' basketball team.

Physical Education Strengthens Students

Playing soccer enables the boys to develop their co-ordination.

This girl learns the correct technique for standing on her head in tumbling class.

Mr. Williard James and Mr. Charlie King do odd jobs around the Mitchell campus. Mr. Dan Shoemaker, as maintenance man, keeps Mitchell College looking its best.

Cooks relax after a busy meal.

The People Behind the Scenes

Assistant Supervisor of the Student Union, Mrs. Betty Morphis, is always busy keeping the Union in order; yet, she still finds time to chat and make friends with the students.

Mrs. Faye Williams, the school dietician, works hard planning well-balanced meals for the students. She has been a dietician for the past twenty-five years.

Councils Provide Forum For Opinion

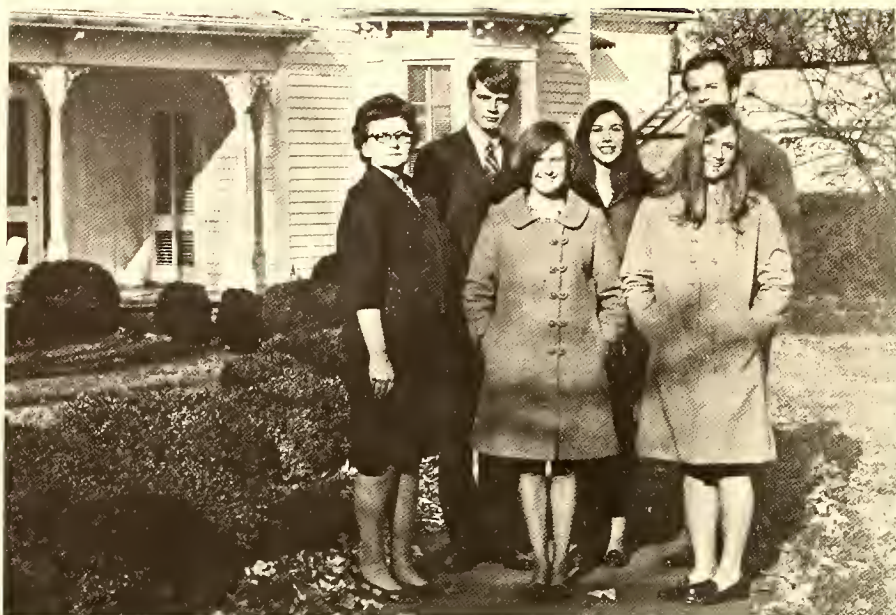

Through the Student Council Mitchell College students are given the opportunity to voice their opinions on matters relating to student welfare. The student Council, in addition to furnishing a forum for the expression of student opinion, provides opportunities for the development of responsible leadership and citizenship. The leaders of the 1968-'69 Student Council are as follows: Fred Brewer, president; Rubin Shaver, vice-president; and Julie Storie, secretary-treasurer. Under the supervision of Mr. Oscar Stradley these students draw up a budget and control the elections which take place on the campus.

The Honor Council is composed of Bo Scott and George Wilson.

Members of Phi Theta Kappa are Miss Martha Linney, adviser, Peggy Joyner, Pat Troutman, Gordon Harwell, Cindy Martin, Jon Nesbit, vice-president.

The Nu Tau chapter of Phi Theta Kappa was established at Mitchell in 1965. Qualifications for active membership in this national junior college honorary scholastic fraternity are a 3.3 cumulative grade point average for a freshman and a 3.2 cumulative grade point average for a sophomore, a good moral character, and recognized qualities of citizenship.

Phi Theta Kappa Promotes Scholasticism

Phil Greene and Linda Eskridge chat about future plans for Phi Theta Kappa.

Mike Josey, president of Phi Theta Kappa, sits thinking about future initiation ceremonies.

Sigma Pi Alpha Stimulates Interest in Language

In 1948 the Mu Chapter of Sigma Pi Alpha was organized to honor students with a high scholastic average in language. The main purposes of the national honorary language fraternity are to stimulate an interest in language, to help students acquire a more intimate knowledge of the people whose languages are being studied, and to make a contribution toward a better understanding between their country and ours.

Sigma Pi Alpha officers are Peggy Joyner, vice-president; Jim Chaffin, president; Mrs. Knox, adviser. Linda Eskridge, secretary-treasurer not pictured.

Delta Psi Omega

The Mitchell College Cast of Delta Psi Omega, Chapter Number 163, was installed on campus May, 1960, as a part of the national dramatics fraternity. The honor of membership will be bestowed upon students for their participation in dramatic activities by election to the chapter in accordance with the constitution and ritual of the national fraternity. Candidates are elected to membership by the director and cast of Delta Psi Omega.

Mrs. Martha Bradner takes a break during rehearsal for a play.

Gail Ward portrays Christmas future and

Encourages Drama

The Drama Department of Mitchell College is under the direction of Mrs. Martha Bradner. The students use Craftsmen of Dionysus, a textbook which covers the Stanislavski method of acting. They learn the proper way to act through planned exercises and skits. Their winter productions were Dicken's Christmas Carol and Acting Lesson by Willard Simms. They will produce The Medium by Gian Carlo Menotti as one of their spring productions. They work in affiliation with Delta Psi Omega.

John Vernon portrays Ebenezer Scrooge.

George Wilson is narrator for the play Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens.

Jean Bishop and Phil Greene practice for The Acting Lesson.

The Business Staff is made up of Pat Troutman, Bill Long, Benth Beam, and Bo Scott.

Colonel Don Spencer and Mrs. Jane Chilton discuss annual business.

Phil Greene, business manager of THE CIRCLE, checks the financial records.

Mrs. Catherine Cline is a helpful adviser for THE CIRCLE.

Charles Graybeal, photographer, contemplates his next move.

Keith Savoy, assistant photographer, wonders why he can't find all the pictures he took.

Taking on the responsibility of editing an annual is a difficult task, but with the help of Mrs. Catherine Cline, adviser; Mrs. Jane Chilton, and Colonel Don Spencer, co-editors Peggy Joyner and Cindy Martin met each of the publisher's deadlines. Through the publication of THE CIRCLE the staff hopes that the memories of Mitchell will be kept alive by recalling persons and activities of the year.

The Circle Staff Has a Chaotic Affair

Cindy Martin and Peggy Joyner, co-editors, make peace after an argument.

Mr. Young, adviser of the college newspaper, glances through an exchange newspaper.

Karen Brown and Roger Rumble, co-editors of Campus Comments, search for pictures to use for their next deadline.

Newspaper Creates

Financed by the Student Council, without aid of advertisements, Campus Comments is published monthly by members of the Journalism class. Students not taking the course may be members of the staff. Under the leadership of Mr. John Young, adviser and co-editors Karen Brown and Roger Rumble, Campus Comments keeps the students abreast of the happenings at Mitchell.

Roger Rumble, Karen Brown, and Mr. Young proof their paper.

The Fine Arts Committee is composed of Dean Bradshaw, Miss Shirley Thorne, Mr. Walter Mann, Mr. Jay Hall, and Fred Brewer.

Fine Arts Series Provides Cultural Enrichment

The annual Fine Arts Series is designed to provide an opportunity for cultural enrichment. Outstanding lecturers and artists from various branches of the arts are brought in for evening appearances. Attendance at Fine Arts programs is required of all full-time students.

During the first semester students were presented with two Fine Arts programs. The first was "Carnival" presented by Bill Fegan in association with Jean Favre and the Third Eye Theatre. The second was presented by the North Carolina Symphony under the direction of Dr. Benjamin Swalin. More programs are planned for second semester.

Choir Performs

The purpose of the choir is to develop a better understanding of music through the study and singing of the finest choral music. The group presented the "Christmas Oratorio" by Camille Saint-Saens during December. A formal concert and a musical are presented in the spring. The choir sings for out-of-town audiences as well as in the city of Statesville. Various other activities are carried on by the choir, such as directing the singing for sacred programs, and participating in the May Day exercises. This year Mrs. Martha Bradner is the new director.

Music is Important Part of Mitchell

The Mitchellaires, the male chorus group, and the Mitchellettes, the female chorus group, are composed of students with special interests and ability in singing. They perform at various college and community functions and have established reputations as being outstanding performing groups. This year they were under the direction of Mrs. Martha Bradner.

Religious Emphasis Week Inspires Students Through Group Discussions

The Student Christian Association fosters and directs the student religious activities at Mitchell College. It sponsors occasional vesper programs and retreats and is instrumental in bringing speakers to the campus for various types of meetings. With the assistance of Dr. Richard Morgan, college chaplain and adviser of the association, the SCA has become active. The SCA sponsored a speaker, Dr. L. L. McGee, during Religious Emphasis Week.

Nesbit Heads "Circle K"

The "Circle K" is affiliated with the local Kiwanis Club. It renders services to the school, to the community, and to the Kiwanis Club. The members are chosen for their overall scholastic average and their contributions to their fellow students.

The main project of the "Circle K" each year is the blood program for the Red Cross. Through skits put on by the members themselves, they encourage the students to give blood. The club also compiles a student directory, distributes monthly calendars, and ushers at several of the college functions. The members sponsored a dance this year after the mid-term exams.

"Circle K" officers are Jon Nesbit, president; Kent Waugh, vice-president; Gordon Harwell, secretary; Rubin Shaver, treasurer; Dale Britt, Pete Muse, and Mike Neal, Board of Directors. Mr. James M. Storie is their adviser.

Jon Nesbit, president of "Circle K," presides over the monthly meeting.

The Young Republicans and the Understand the Complexities

Young Republican officers are Boy Man Dixon, vice-president; Gil Crouch, secretary; Rick Stegall, president, Mr. Sidney R. Sowers, adviser, Pete Muse, treasurer not shown.

Young Republicans urge students to take part in politics.

The Young Republican Club promotes the understanding of and interest in politics in the school so that the student will take a more active part in later adult life. This organization is sponsored by the Young Republican Federation of North Carolina.

The Young Democrats main objective is to acquaint students with government, politics, and the Democratic party. By joining this club, students are able to meet people and learn more about our democratic form of government. Members of the organization worked with local democratic officials in the successful gubernatorial campaign of Governor Robert W. Scott.

The newly reactivated club is led by Mr. Joseph Pickett, adviser; Roger Rumple, president; Larry Ostwalt, vice-president; Benth Beam, secretary; and Danny Boovey, treasurer.

Young Democrats Help Students of Modern Politics

Social Science Club officers are Dale Britt, president; Mike Neal, vice-president; Pam Lentz, secretary; Marshall Kibler, treasurer; Mrs. Pickett, adviser.

Social Science Club Attends Model Congress

The Social Science Club, open to all students, is interested primarily in promoting interest and understanding of political and social problems. In November, the club sponsored Lt. Gov. Robert Scott who spoke to the student body about the future of education in North Carolina. In March a delegation of students attended the Mid-South Model United Nations at Lake Junaluska. In April, a delegation participated in the National Model United Nations for the second year. The experience of meeting with the Ambassador of Panama, which was the country which Mitchell represented in the General Assembly, has added to the interest of the Mitchell students. In May, 1968, a delegation of Mitchell students attended the Model U.S. Congress at Central Wesleyan College and won the gavel for the best delegation. They will attend again in the spring of 1969.

Canterbury Club Discusses Problems

The Canterbury Club, which is open to all students, meets twice a month on Sunday evening for discussion of problems facing the college students of today. Once a month they have a dinner meeting, dinner being provided by Trinity Episcopal Church. One activity they participated in was the Halloween Carnival in conjunction with the Women of Trinity.

Canterbury Club officers are John Vernon, president; Marshall Kibler, vice-president; Judy Jessop, secretary; Jim Chaffin, treasurer; and Mrs. Pickett, adviser.

P.E. Club officers are Tom Kennedy, treasurer; Jimmy Guy, vice-president; Dianna Smith, secretary; Bruce Tuttle, president.

P. E. Club Sponsors Slave Sale

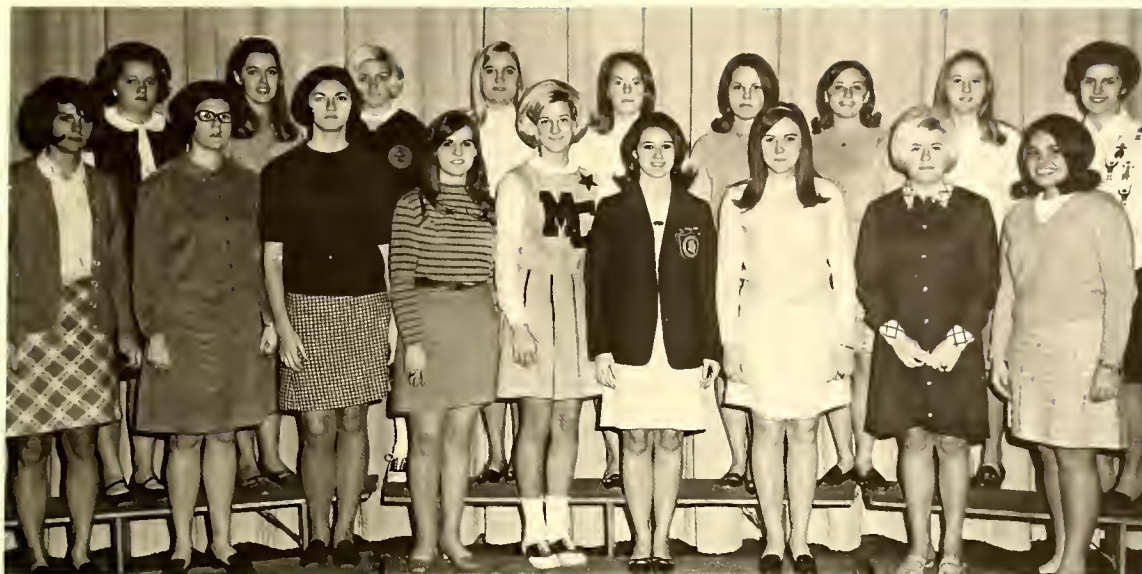

The Physical Education Club is open to any student who is interested in the fields of health and physical education. Various activities and projects are planned throughout the year so that the club members have an opportunity to learn about health and physical education as a possible major. One of the projects of the club is the Slave Sale, which is very successful, because every boy enjoys bidding on his favorite girl.

Carmen McLean prepares to be auctioned off.

P.E. Club members are first row, left to right: Pat Levan, Sylvia Bush, Linda Owens, Sandy Fulk, Cherylyn Scruggs, Judy Miller, Diane Booras, Debbie Fagg, Bob Gaskey, Linda Walsh, Lynn Johnson, Barb Griffith. As the 1968-69 school year ends, many of us have learned that time is a very important factor in our lives. Of course, some of us have not used the time we have had to our advantage and have found that we cannot bring that wasted hour back.

Tomorrow is never what we think it will be. In that sense tomorrow never comes. Today we think we will be happy and please ourselves. Tomorrow we will do our duty. But we only make ourselves wretched pleasure-seekers.

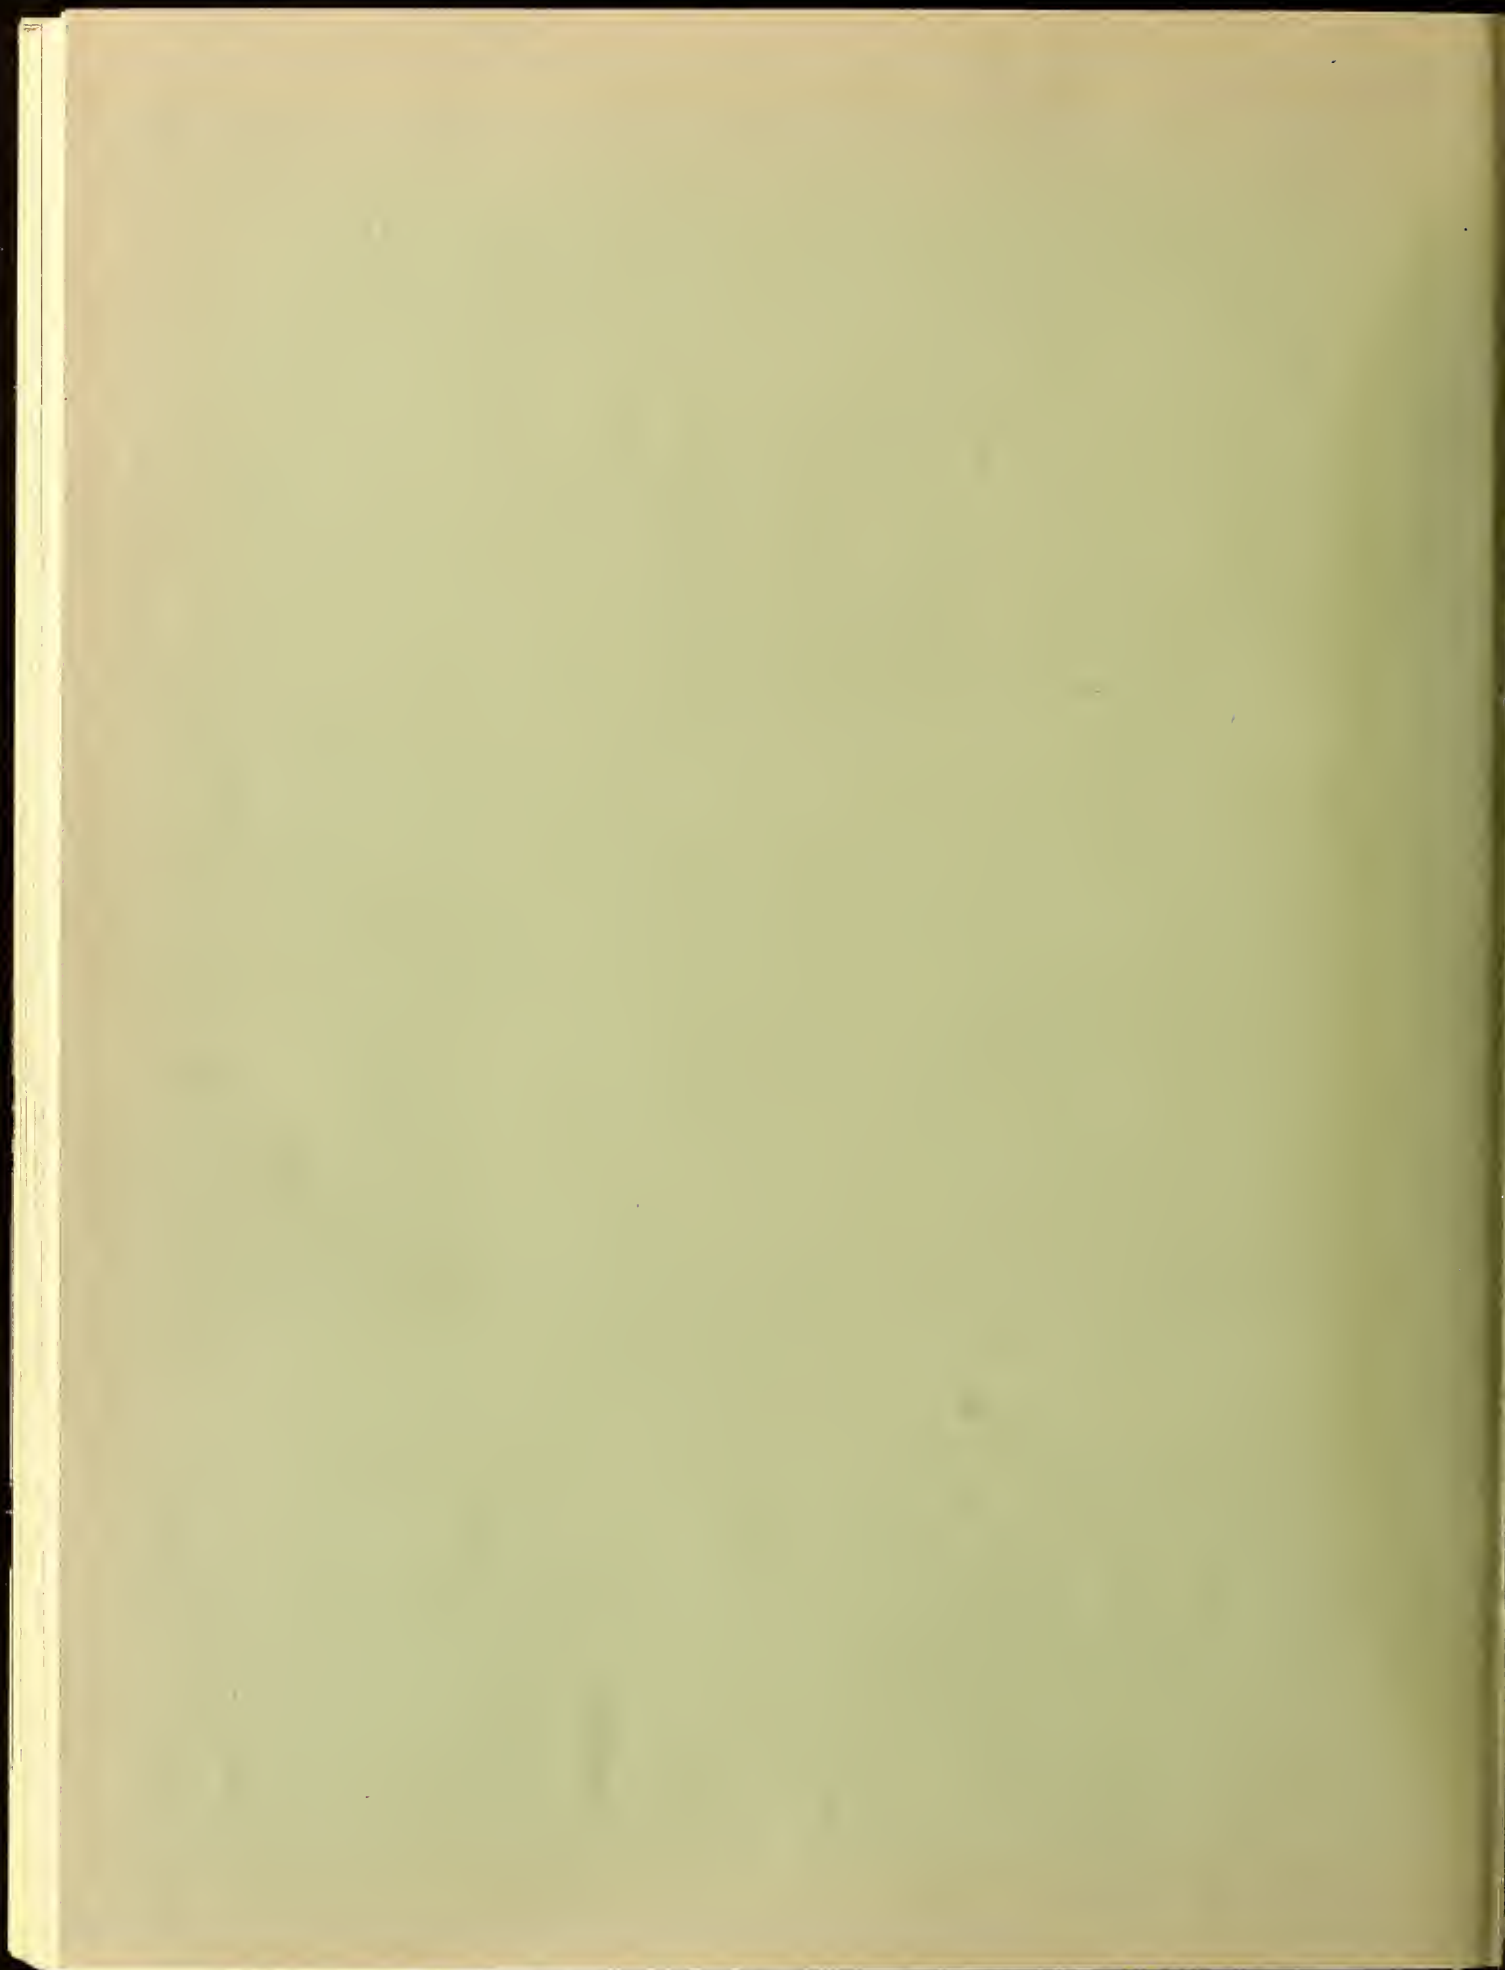

For human nature is fundamentally such that it can only find enduring gladness in the incidental accompaniments of duty performed today. (taken from Leaves of Gold)

Without the help, patience and co-operation of many people there would be no CIRCLE 1969. You can see most of their pictures on the two CIRCLE pages in the Campus Life Section. But a special thanks must go to Mrs. Catherine Cline, Colonel Don Spencer, Mrs. Jane Chilton, Phil Greene, Joan Bunton, Charles Graybeal, Keith Savoy, Pat Troutman, Benthia Beam, Billy Long, Bo Scott, the students, faculty and administration of Mitchell College, the community of Statesville, and Delmar Publishing Company, especially to Herb Eaton.
